

Springville City Monthly Department Report
Museum June 2012

Performance Management Statistics

- ✓ 2,500 participants attended the Children's Art Festival
- ✓ Nearly 200 high school students enjoyed the "Happening"
- ✓ 100 were in attendance at Community & Family Night
- ✓ Over 300 students attended "College Night"

Significant Events

Mon, Jun 4, 2012, 6-8pm: Community & Family Night

Painter and cartoonist, Kerry Soper, was the guest artist, and entertainment was provided by Paul Bodily, a former member of Vocal Point. The children enjoyed creating their own masterpieces.

Fri, Jun 8, 2012, 10am-2pm: Children's Art Festival

This free event offered over 20 different art booths such as printmaking, sandpainting, and face painting, where children of all ages explored their creativity. The Children's Art Festival is generously supported by the Springville Kiwanis Club, the Springville Art Commission, Springville City, the StateWide Art Partnership, Crayola, and others.

Wed, Jun 13, 2012, 7-9pm: Happening

High school students had a wonderful evening experimenting with henna, enjoying deserts and working on an art project.

Thurs, Jun 14, 2012, 10am-2pm: Crafternoon

Adults explored their "craftier" sides and socialized in the Museum's beautiful environment.

Wed, Jun 20, 2012, 7-9pm: College Night

Students enjoyed an evening of fine art, live entertainment, socializing, and refreshments. Music was performed by local band "Lady and Gent" while delicious pie shakes were served from Sammy's.

Wed, Jun 27, 2012, 7-8:30pm: unbound: a book club for art lovers

Clara and Mr. Tiffany by Susan Vreeland was reviewed; Susan joined the discussion via video-conferencing.

Fri, Jun 29, 2012, 11am-2pm: Stuffed Animal Hullabaloo

Children and their stuffed pals came and enjoyed a picnic, art projects and zany photos with their furry friends.