

Springville City Monthly Department Report
Springville Museum of Art - July 2012

Performance Management Statistics

- ✓ Performance by Martha Kostiuk-Hollier, leading soloist for 21 years with the Bolshoi Opera in Moscow, Russia's premier opera and ballet venue.
- ✓ 39th Annual Quilt Show opened, with 180 attended the Member & Quilter Preview and Award Ceremony
- ✓ 600 ladies attended the Utah Valley Quilter Fair

Significant Events

Fri, Jul 13, 2012, 6-8pm: Member & Quilter Preview

SMA Members, quilters and the public were invited to an exclusive preview viewing of the 39th Annual Quilt Show. Award winners were announced and guests had the opportunity to meet the Quilters.

Wed, Jul 18, 2012, 9:30am-3:30pm: Utah Valley Quilt Guild Fair

The Utah Valley Quilt Guild and the Museum invited the community to join them for a Quilt Fair. This annual event stimulated the mind with motivating quilting classes, a Tasters Table with a chocolate Fondue Bar, a silent auction, and networking with fellow quilters. All experience levels were welcome. Proceeds from the event supported the Guild sponsored community service projects.

Wed, Jul 25, 2012, 7-8:30 pm: unbound: a book club for art lovers

Art lovers explored the correlation of art and literature in Shades of Grey by Jasper Fforde; part social satire, part romance, part revolutionary thriller.

Wed. Jul 25, 2012, 7-8:30 pm; Grand Gallery – A Tribute to Russia

Featured soprano, Martha Kostiuk Hollier, formerly with the Bolshoi Theater in Moscow, Russia, performed operatic fragments and was accompanied by John Sargeant, on the piano.

Mon, Jul 30, 2012, 8-10pm: Folkfest Street Dance

The Annual Springville World Folkfest Street Dance was held in the Museum parking lot. Morning Star, Pacific Generation and Rocky Mountain Express, taught a simple dance to people of all ages. In between they danced to American music.

