Animal Keeping – The raising, care, and keeping of animals and fowl, specifically in the A-1 and R1-15 Zones under the following conditions:

(1)   In the R1-15 Zone, no animals may be kept on any lot smaller in size than twenty thousand (20,000) square feet.

(2)   The number of animals kept on any lot or parcel shall not exceed one (1) animal unit, as defined below, for each ten thousand (10,000) square feet of area of the lot which is used as livestock management area.

(3)   No animals shall be kept on any lot or parcel where less than ten thousand (10,000) square feet of the lot is used as livestock management area nor shall fractional animal units be permitted.

(4)   For purposes of this Title, livestock management area shall include all portions of the lot or parcel used as sheds, barns, coops, corrals, pastures, stables, gardens or cultivated grounds where animal waste can be spread, but shall not include the area of lot or parcel devoted to dwellings, sidewalks, driveways, and lawn.

(5)   "Animal keeping" does not include keeping hen chickens for egg production. Keeping hens for egg production in accordance with Title 3, Chapter 7 does not count for utilization of an animal unit unless more fowl are kept than permitted therein.

Animal Unit – For purposes of this Title, one (1) animal unit shall be any of the following:

- Horse/mule/cow/llama: 1 = 1 animal unit

- Miniature horse/sheep/goats/emu: 4 = 1 animal unit

- Small fowl/livestock (i.e., chickens, rabbits, chinchillas, or similar animals): 12 = 1 animal unit

- Young animals less than six (6) months of age shall not count toward the allowable unit limit. The keeping of exotic animals is permitted only as a conditional use in those zones that allow animal keeping.
